Professional Development

Program Overview

Professional development is a critical component in promoting effective teaching and high levels of student performance for the staff and students of Harford County Public Schools (HCPS). The purpose of the professional development system is to increase student achievement, enhance classroom instructional strategies that promote rigor and relevance throughout the curriculum, and prepare students for continuing education and the workforce. Professional learning is the result of the individual's commitment to improvement.

The Office of Leadership and Professional Development works to initiate, promote, and support professional learning of teachers and instructional administrators across the school system. National and state guidelines along with the Board of Education and Superintendent provide the direction for the comprehensive plans for professional development. Current research on content and pedagogy are cornerstone to the total program.

Educators play a critical role in the success of students. As such, all educators are called on to continually improve their practice. Professional development is the single most accessible method by which educators can grow and learn as professionals. In recent years a trio of potent reforms have impacted education: teacher evaluations that include professional practices and student growth measures; adoption of higher academic standards; and the development of assessments aligned with the new standards. Each reform demands that schools systematically and continuously improve student performance. The new reforms require significant changes in the classroom.

HCPS established practices that support the development, sustained implementation, and continuous improvement of the district's workforce. Those people charged with leading professional development operate as a community of practice within the school system to continually deepen and expand their understanding of what is required to transfer professional learning into improved professional practice. Schools, offices, and departments collaborate to advance student learning through research-based, evidence-driven professional learning.

Professional development activities occur at both the school and system level. Guidelines for specific initiatives are provided to ensure a systematic implementation across schools and offices. The Office of Leadership and Professional Development supports the work of the school and content supervisors in providing resources, guidance, and time for specific activities. Effective professional learning occurs over time in a sustained environment. Coordinating the Teacher Professional Development Calendar is one way to support the work of the various stakeholders.

The Professional Development Office coordinates teacher induction activities. Federal and State guidelines identify new teachers as those teachers in their first three years of teaching. Also, the Office of Leadership and Professional Development coordinates activities related to pre-service teachers. Harford Community College field placement students and university student interns are managed by the Professional Development Office.

The Office of Leadership and Professional Development coordinates the National Board Certification process for HCPS. As of September 2016, HCPS has seventy-eight National Board Certified Teachers.
