HCPS Celebrates Black History Month

February 13, 2023

Background:

This month, Harford County Public Schools celebrates Black History Month. Celebrating Black History Month during February became a recognized tradition in 1976 as part of the nation's bicentennial celebrations. It aims to honor the past, present, and future contributions of African Americans.

Discussion:

This presentation will highlight some of the ways that our students and staff are learning about and celebrating the contributions of African Americans during Black History Month, February 2023.

Superintendent's Recommendation:

The Superintendent of Schools recommends the Board of Education accept this informational report that highlights some of the district wide celebrations of Black History month.
