First Ladies of Edgewood

A club that seeks to mentor our young women
at Edgewood High School

Mission Statement

Our mission is to empower young ladies to achieve emotional, social, and economic self-sufficiency. We will provide support to ensure they graduate from high school and are equipped for post high school pursuits.

Our Vision

We visualize a world in which no matter what your race, ethnicity, income level, or social status, our girls will be cultivated and empowered to reach their full protentional and life-long goals.

- Planning and rehearsing for the First Ladies event in which the girls prepared and executed an excellent night of the program.
- Brewing and enjoying different types of tea while the executive board gave personal experiences about how to carry yourself in the world as a young woman
- Baking cookies under the direction of our schools culinary teacher
- Making High School Count discussion with school counseling
- Delivering snacks for teacher appreciation week
- Financial Literacy
- College Essay Writing and Career Readiness

The Cinderella Project

The Project was started in 2014 from a simple conversation that Miss Webster had in the hall with a female student. She asked the young lady if she was going to the prom, and she said that she would love to, but her family could not afford it. From that point, the wheels started turning and a mission to raise the funds began.

The first year we were able to provide ten prom tickets. At this point, we have granted almost two hundred prom tickets.

Each year we also host the Cinderella Project event. We invite the community to join us for dinner as we showcase the talents of the First Ladies and the work they have done all year. We award the “Girl of the Year Award”, senior leis for 4-year members, and the “Gracious Lady” award. About 150 to 200 people attend this event each year.

Testimonial for a Member

“ As I write this and reflect on my time as First Lady, I am filled with gratitude for all that I have learned and done over the last few months... I've met like-minded people with similar goals and ideals, and I've had a safe environment to be myself and let my talents shine...

One aspect of this club that I hadn't anticipated is the active involvement of our leadership in our development as students. Whenever I speak with Ms. Webster, she always offers support and positivity regarding my performance in school and maintains high expectations for our behavior. The expectation of being a First Lady of Edgewood is that we become well-rounded young women who participate in sports and clubs while maintaining strong academic performance and showing respect for ourselves and our school.

So let us continue to bond and uplift one another to create a life-long impact, to be a source of encouragement, and to believe in the incredible potential of those who attend Edgewood high school. ”
